

Benefit Concert for the Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan (RAWA) at King's Barcade in Raleigh, NC 9:30 P.M. - Thursday, January 10, 2002 - Donation of $7

RAWA is a political/social organization of Afghan women struggling for peace, freedom, democracy and women's rights in fundamentalism-blighted Afghanistan.

For more information about RAWA go to their website: <http://www.rawa.org/>

Regina Hexaphone

www.reginahexaphone.com

They push in directions of rock and folk, even letting the violin drift out of rhythm into atonal scratching that was somehow pleasing to the ear.

Nathan Gelgud, The Spectator

If you are looking for the fuel to feed your rock-and-roll fire look no further than the Butchies. .

. . the Butchies have brought the medicine and with a little luck can cure and kick-start the kids back into the wonderful world of punk rock and passion that has been missing for years.

Erik Gamlem, Pop Matters

The Butchies

www.thebutchies.com

Poetry of Alix Olson and Amy Neevel. Alix Olson is a spoken word artist whose touring has taken her from the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force's recent "Creating Change" conference to Porto, Portugal's International Poetry Festival. On the cover of Ms. Magazine this year, Alix has been called a "red-hot, fire-bellied, feminismo-spewin' volcano" by Alison Bechdel and "simply extraordinary" by Howard Zinn.

Alix Olson

www.alixolson.com

Chuck Johnson (Idyll Swords/Spatula) performing solo.

What makes this album so accessible is the genuine care that goes into each song. There's a light, playful mood overall; despite technically flawless performances.

Review of the Idyll Swords second cd. Richard A. Martin, Seattle Weekly

Location: King's, 424 S. McDowell, Raleigh, 919-831-1005. From route 40 East, take exit 298B (S. Saunders, Downtown) and follow into S. McDowell; King's is on the left next to Vertigo restaurant.

Silent auction on 2 beautiful rugs handmade by RAWA at the benefit. Bids start at $500.

