

North Carolinians for Alternatives to War

As the U.S. military machine continues to devastate Afghanistan and her people, we ask: "How can we respond to terrorism with a unified voice for peace?"

Join hundreds of North Carolinians on Jan. 19, 2002 to celebrate the life and nonviolent witness of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. as we demand an end to the madness of war.

Confirmed Speakers for Saturday Rally

Philip Berrigan • Rev. Carrie Bolton • Rukiya Dillahunt
Rev. Curtis Gatewood • Rania Masri
Elizabeth McLaughlin • Neesha Mirchandani

Also, listen to the special nonviolent responses from David Potorti, whose brother died in the World Trade Center, and from Amber Amundson, whose husband died in the Pentagon on September 11, 2001.

Saturday, January 19, 2002

• Raleigh, North Carolina •

Feature Event

Join a 1.8-mile march at 12 noon from Martin Luther King Memorial Gardens (located at MLK Blvd. and Rock Quarry Rd.) to the State Capitol for a rally with guest speakers. The march will include flags from every nation. Bring your own peace banners. Children will carry homemade drums in the march.

Other Events of the Weekend

- Nonviolence trainings Saturday night 1-19-02
- Demonstration at U.S. Army Base, Fort Bragg Sunday midday 1-20-02

Information visit www.ncaw.org

- Bus transportation is available throughout the Triangle. For info about our bus service email bus@ncaw.org
- Free lodging is available for both Friday and Saturday. For more info email lodging@ncaw.org

Call for details • Raleigh: 919-779-1912 • Chapel Hill: 919-942-2535 • Durham: 919-949-0329

