

January 19, 2002 Afternoon Rally Program, Raleigh, NC

North Carolinians for Alternatives to War, www.ncaw.org

Location: State Capital grounds; rain location: St. Paul AME Church, 402 W. Edenton St

- 1:00-1:15 Marchers arrive at Rally
- 1:00 Music by Kathleen Hannan, Beth Shulman, and Sheila Warner, appearing (along with 12 other musicians) on their recently released CD, called Count My Heart
- 1:20 Philip Berrigan - Internationally known advocate for Peace and Nonviolence. He will be introduced by Rev. W.W. "Bill" Finlator, pastor emeritus of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church
- 1:40 Reverend Carrie Bolton - Alston Chapel Church, Chatham County
- 1:50 Amber Amundson - Widow of Craig Scott Amundson, a U.S. Army officer killed at the Pentagon in the Sept. 11 terrorist attack
- 2:00 Evelyn Mattern - Poet, introducing Poets for Peace, Shirlette Ammons of Raleigh
- 2:10 Neesha Mirchandani – Afghan Women’s Mission Board of Directors member and Manager of Operations
- 2:20 The Raging Grannies
- 2:30 Burnadette O’Neill, introducing teen speakers, Rachel Byrne, Rachel Meyer, Nick Shepard, Evan Mankoff, and Angela Williamson
- 2:40 Elizabeth McLaughlin - Board member of National Lawyers Guild
- 2:50 Reverend Curtis Gatewood - Durham NAACP
- 3:00 Evelyn Mattern - Poet, introducing Poets for Peace: Saria Young of Chapel Hill and Sam Silva of Fayetteville
- 3:10 Rania Masri - Director of the Economic and Environmental Justice Program at the Institute for Southern Studies; national board member, Peace Action; member of the board of directors, Education for Peace in Iraq Center
- 3:20 Rukiya Dillahunt - Past officer of NC Association of Educators; organizer for race and ethnic relations
- 3:30 Fruit of Labor Singing Ensemble
- 3:40 David Potorti - Brother of a 9-11 World Trade Center victim. He is a writer and radio/television producer residing in Cary, North Carolina

