

North Carolina State-Wide Rally for Non-Violence

Saturday, September 7, 2002
• Raleigh, North Carolina •

One year ago on September 11, 2001, almost 3,000 people died in terrorist attacks in New York and Washington. Please join us on Saturday, Sept. 7 to honor 9-11 victims and their loved ones at a peace march through the streets of downtown Raleigh and a rally at the State Capitol.

Building Peaceful Tomorrows

As peacemakers, we march against terrorism – and against wars on terrorism. The cycle of violence must stop if we want a peaceful and just world. We take to heart the words of Martin Luther King, Jr., “Before it is too late, we must narrow the gaping chasm between our proclamations of peace and our lowly deeds which precipitate and perpetuate war.”

March through Raleigh to Feature Event

Join us on a 1.8 mile march leading to and surrounding the State Capitol with flags of the nations of our world. The march kicks off at 11:30 from the MLK, Jr. Memorial Garden, located at the corner of Rock Quarry Rd. and MLK Blvd.

The event at the Capitol begins at 12:30 p.m. with music by Fruit of Labor, and with special appearances by the amazing Raging Grannies and George Shrub – the Singing CIA Agent!

Confirmed Speakers for Rally at State Capital

Nathan Musselman – Recent political detainee in Israel and staff member with Voices in the Wilderness.

Stanley Hauerwas – Time Magazine called him, “America’s best theologian.” Hauerwas is a pacifist and Duke Divinity School professor of theological ethics.
